Upper Wabash River Public Meeting
Upper Wabash River Phase 2 Watershed Implementation Plan

The Upper Wabash River Basin Commission (UWRBC) is hosting a public meeting to inform stakeholders concerning the implementation of the Upper Wabash cost-share program and other related activities that benefit the public. The meeting will be held Thursday March 30, 2017 from 7:00 to 8:00 pm at the Wells County Public Library, 200 W. Washington Street in Bluffton. The cost-share program is designed to directly benefit farmers and urban and rural landowners in the Upper Wabash River watershed.

Meeting objectives:

- Provide background on the project
- Discuss benefits of the cost-share program and how to apply
- Update residents on related activities being planned to benefit the public
